Boylston Creek Reclassification

It seems like I give an update on this in every issue of the newsletter. Rep. David Guice and Sen. Jim Davis have introduced bills in the NC General Assembly that would "declassify" Boylston Creek as a Trout Stream. The bills have passed both the House and Senate and have gone to the Governor for her signature. Hopefully she will sign the bill into law any day now.

Hooper Lane

We have had several meetings with NC DOT about the condition of Hooper Lane. Right now this road serves as the main access into the Town's property. Hopefully, working with the DOT and other property owners along the road, we can come up with a plan that will satisfy everyone and make the road safer to travel.

The Council is also looking at another entrance to our property off of Highway 191. Stay tuned for further details on this.

Parks and Recreation

We are moving forward with the Town Park. Council has accepted a bid for the grading of the first phase and the contractor should be starting in the next week. This first phase area consists of about 20+ acres and is located from Highway 191 to our building. One of our current employees, Pat Christie was recently named Zoning Enforcement Officer/Parks and Recreation Coordinator for the Town. Did you know that you can see a conceptual plan for the park on our website?

Town Hall

The Library and Town Hall recently moved into a new building. It combines previously rented Town Hall offices, rented Library space and a rented storage area all under one roof. Stop by and see the new building during office hours and we will be happy to show you around.

Safety Note

As you get outside and start those spring cleaning chores, be careful and be aware of your surroundings. If you need to clean those gutters – this is one of my least favorite items, have someone hold the ladder and take your time while doing this. While working outside, it is always better to have someone else close, just in case an emergency arises.

Remember as you travel the roads here in Mills River – be mindful of the farmers on the roads with their equipment. As equipment gets bigger, they take up more space, slow down and be a little bit more careful as you meet them.

HISTORY CORNER

by Jim Brittain

Residents who have come to Mills River in recent years might be curious about the origin of the name of Davenport's Bridge which spans the river on Hwy. 280 (191). The name was selected in 1994 as an appropriate way to honor the family who owned and operated a general store once located on the bank of the river near the bridge. The history of the store deserves to be remembered since it served for more than seven decades as the commercial, social, and cultural center of the Mills River community.

James T. (Jim) Davenport (1871-1946) moved to Mills River from a farm in Transylvania County in 1900. Initially, he built a home and a small store on present-day Whitaker Lane on upper Mills River. He married a local girl, Bertha Whitaker (1883-1953), the oldest of 17 children of Sidney and Ruth Field Whitaker. In December, 1907, Jim and Bertha purchased an existing store on the lower Mills River. In 1909, Fred Whitaker, a brother of Bertha, joined the business. The store was then known as the Davenport and Whitaker Store until 1929 when Sheldon T. Davenport (1907-1983) joined his father, Jim, in the business. The Davenports lived on the second floor of the two-story frame structure with the store on the ground floor.

At various times in its long history, the premises of Davenport's Store included a corn mill, a blacksmith shop, and a post office. The store provided diverse products such as sugar, salt, flour, medicines, candy, and tobacco. There was also a gasoline pump and kerosene for oil lamps. The store housed a pot-belly stove and a "loafer's bench" where patrons were welcome to sit and visit with their neighbors. At least one nearby resident reportedly rode his farm tractor to the store regularly after he no longer could drive a car. Those connected to the upper Mills River party telephone line could call the store and have urgent messages relayed to Hendersonville and elsewhere. The author recalls a time in the late 1940's when Jim Davenport's grandson, Robert, would deliver a grocery order to homes in the community. Jim Davenport also served on the local school board for nearly four decades. Davenport's Store even provided office space for a group of opponents to the building of a dam on the Mills River by the Tennessee Valley Authority in the early 1970's.

The store was vulnerable to flooding when the river overflowed its banks. On one occasion a local resident showed up with his horse and buggy to help rescue the Davenport women from high water. In August, 1954, the Hendersonville Times-News reported that an Asheville company had been hired to move the sixty-year old store building more than 90 feet closer to Hendersonville to make room for the installation of a wider bridge on Hwy. 191. Following the death of Jim Davenport in July 1946, Sheldon and his wife, Sue Winslow Davenport, continued to operate the store until its final closure in June, 1982. The closure marked the end of an era in Mills River when Davenport's Store was at the center of life in the community.

MILLS RIVER FIRE DEPT'S WARM WEATHER SAFETY TIPS

Firefighters at Mills River Fire and Rescue want you to have a fun and safe warm weather season. Warm weather brings out people to enjoy the nice ambient temperatures, as well as many different activities. We are offering residents safety tips to help them avoid unnecessary fires and injuries during the spring and summer season.

Grilling can be great fun, but remember to protect your foods and follow safe and sanitary food preparation guidelines. If you are using a barbecue grill, gas powered, check all your connections to be sure they are not blocked. Be careful not to overfill the tank. Have a professional do it for you. Just like with your kitchen safety, never wear loose fitting clothing while cooking. Wear covering clothes that give you some protection if you have a splatter. Swimsuits may leave skin exposed and susceptible for a burn. If using lighter fluid, never add fluid to an already existing flame, as it may flashback and explode the source. Keep matches and lighters away from children. Supervise your children around a hot grill. Dispose of your hot coals properly, douse them with water, and stir them to make sure the fire is out. Never put them in a plastic, wood, or paper container. Never use a grill in an enclosed area, as carbon monoxide may be produced. Make sure you and all your friends and family know how to Stop-Drop-Cover your face-and Roll, in the event your clothes catch fire.

Fireworks are best and safest left to the professionals. Fireworks pose severe burn hazards, even down to your sparklers, as they reach extreme high temperatures. Make it a family outing and join a public display. Make sure to follow directions, if you choose to use fireworks yourself and follow all laws in your area.

Most of us love visiting the water, be it a pool, lake, a beach or other bodies of water, but safety is a big concern. The best tip is to learn to swim. Never swim alone, always have a buddy. Swim in supervised areas, when possible. Supervise children and inexperienced swimmers. Know your water environment including depth, temperature, currents, and etc. Follow the safety rules of that particular area. Never consume alcohol when swimming, diving, or boating. Pay attention to local weather conditions. Know how to prevent, recognize, and respond to an emergency.

Knowing your address/location and simple directions to your emergency from a main highway may ensure that you save precious seconds in getting help to the person in need of assistance. In Henderson County, 911 Telecommunicators answer for fire, police, and EMS (ambulance), but in other areas, it may be different and they may require you to tell them which agency you need. Full cooperation with our dispatch centers allows us to get help to you more quickly. Don't be alarmed if they question you about the incident, or person; this information allows us to bring the correct tools and personnel to get you the help you need. While one Telecommunicator is taking this information, another is dispatching out the units needed to save time in the arrival of help.

These safety tips are courtesy of Mills River Fire and Rescue, Fire and Life Safety Education. For any questions or for further information, contact Jeannie Moore, Public FLSE at 828-891-7959, or millsriverfireprevention@hotmail.com.

SHERIFF

MILLS RIVER DIVISION

by Sergeant Ken C. McCraw—Have a Happy and Safe 2011!

Please check the Henderson County Sheriff's Office website at www.henderson.lib.nc.us/county/sheriff for links and information regarding identity theft, Community Watch programs, and crime prevention.

Spring has sprung and summer is fast upon us. I hope you will find the following tips useful as we enter the spring/summer seasons:

- Lock your car and remove valuables
- Lock your residence (doors, windows, out buildings)
- Maintain outside lighting and alarm systems
- If you are away for an extended time, have a neighbor or friend check your house. (Cancel or have your mail and paper picked up)
- Do not send money to places/people you are not familiar with. Scams and identity theft are on the increase. (If you think it's a scam—you're probably correct!)
- Use caution when using your personal information on the Internet. Make sure it is a secure connection and a legitimate business.

As the weather warms up and we venture out again, please watch out for children playing. Obey the traffic laws and buckle up.
